FAMILY NEWS

Leland and Erma are at the Faulkner University Bible Lectureship in Alabama. They will be back in Angleton for Saturday, March 6.

If you are an eligible donor we hope you will give blood on March 7. It is important that each person who can will give the gift of life during our blood drive.

On April 9 and 10, there will be a men's retreat at Palacios. Ralph Bryant will be speaking on three different occasions on the topic of prayer. He will also speak on April 11, on this same subject matter. Please make plans to attend.

Our meeting with Jay Lockhart is scheduled for April 25-28. On the Sunday the meeting starts we will have a potluck lunch. Jay's lessons will be:

- The Challenge of Priority
- The Challenge of The Cross
- The Challenge of Discipleship
- The Challenge of Identity
- The Challenge of the Majesty of God
- The Challenge of Scripture

We have been asked by Phil Carter to bring items for Impact's garage sale. These things need to be at our building by March 6.

Wednesday Night with the Master needs to be a weekly event for your family. It begins at 6:00 p.m. You need to be a part of these activities each Wednesday evening.

Our ladies' class continues to meet each Wednesday morning at 10:00 in the fellowship hall.

Erma and Leland will leave on March 19, to go to Tortola. He will conduct a meeting March 21-24. This will take place on the east end of the island. On March 26, they will leave and travel to St. Lucia, where Leland will conduct a meeting from March 28-April 1. Then Erma will speak at their Ladies' Day April 2. They plan to leave to come home on April 3 and to be in worship on April 4 in Angleton. Please pray for them as they prepare, speak, and travel on this trip.

Our campaign is scheduled for July 22-28. We need people to volunteer and help us. We need to hear from you. Please let Billy Mack, Leland, or the office know of your interest. We plan to have our preparation time in April and May.
