ELDER ARTICLE

By: Scott Ratcliff

My dear brethren, we come to you with humble hearts filled with thankfulness and deep appreciation for the outpouring of love, time, energy, and service shown to our little ones and to the children of our community during Vacation Bible School. Over the four nights, we averaged 27 students, and that blessing was made possible through the faithful efforts of countless adults and teens who gave of themselves so willingly. From teaching and preparing lessons, leading activities, serving refreshments, encouraging children, greeting families, cleaning up, praying, and helping in ways both seen and unseen, your service reflected the love of Christ in a beautiful and powerful way. As Paul wrote in Romans 1:9, "I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world." We likewise give thanks to God for each of you, because your faith, love, and devotion were clearly proclaimed through your actions this past week. Your labor in the Lord was not unnoticed, and its influence will continue to be felt in the hearts of these children and in our community for years to come.

Let us not lose sight of the joy found in serving the Lord together. When God's people join their hearts and hands in His work, He is glorified, His church is strengthened, and precious souls are encouraged. We are reminded of Paul's words to the church at Philippi in Philippians 3:14: "I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." May we continue to press on with that same spirit of faithfulness, gratitude, and love, always seeking opportunities to do even more for Him. Thank you for serving well, for loving generously, and for showing our children what it means to follow Christ through willing hearts and devoted hands.

If you were not able to assist, or if you chose not to help in this particular work, we prayerfully and lovingly encourage you to consider how you might become involved in this and other opportunities of service here in Angleton. The Lord has given each of us abilities, time, influence, and opportunities to be used for His glory. Peter reminds us, "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10). Service in the kingdom is not reserved for only a few; it is the shared privilege and responsibility of all who belong to Christ. Whether one teaches, encourages, prepares, cleans, welcomes, prays, gives, or simply offers a willing hand, every act of service done in love matters to God and strengthens His people.

Above all, we serve because Christ first served us. Jesus taught in Mark 10:45 that "the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many." If our Savior humbled Himself in service for our sake, then may we gladly humble ourselves in service to others for His sake. May our congregation be known as a people who are thankful, willing, diligent, and ready for every good work (Colossians 1:10).

You are loved and appreciated. Have a blessed week.
