FAMILY NEWS

Sunday we were blessed in our Worship to God. Christians have a wonderful opportunity to honor the Father on the Lord's day. If you were not able to be present we hope to see you on January 21, 2018.

We hope you picked up a Connections bulletin on Sunday and signed a connection card. We are emphasizing this concept on Sunday. We want to be a church that is connected. We will be connected if each one will do his or her part connecting with someone else. Make it a point to connect with a person this coming Lord's day.

Our new budget for 2018 was given out on January 7, 2018. If you didn't get a copy it can be picked up in the foyer of our building. Let's begin to pray for our new budget each week.

Our special contribution will be on January 28. This is our first special contribution for the renovation in 2018. You gave $84,671.97 in 2017 for our renovation. We appreciate your generosity last year. We need another year of giving liberally to complete our project. Let's pray each week about our special contribution for our renovation in 2018.

Wednesday Night with the Master is going well. Your family and you will enjoy this fellowship each week. Let's make a point to be here at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday evening.

Bible school takes place every Sunday and Wednesday. Your family and you need to be a part of Bible school. We have a new teacher on Sunday morning in the adult class in the auditorium. It is Gerry Austin. He started teaching on Sunday January 14. Let's make plans to be present at Bible school each week.

On January 15 they started the renovation of our auditorium. They began working on the pulpit area to make it round. It isn't in the future any more it is taking place right now.

On Sunday morning we started our new series from the book of Ephesians. Our theme for 2018 is "Who Are We?" We are going to have lessons from Ephesians that will answer the question "Who Are We?" It is our plan to finish the book of Ephesians this year.
