From the Preacher's Desk

Missed Opportunities
Alan Smith

The story is told of a young man who wished to marry the farmer's beautiful daughter. He went to the farmer to ask his permission. The farmer looked him over and responded, "Son, go stand out in that field and I'm going to release three bulls, one at a time. If you can catch the tail of any one of the three bulls, you can marry my daughter."

The young man stood in the pasture awaiting the first bull. The barn door opened and out ran the biggest, meanest-looking bull he had ever seen. He decided that one of the next bulls had to be a better choice than this one, so he ran over to the side and let the bull pass through the pasture out the back gate.

The barn door opened again. Unbelievable. He had never seen anything so big and fierce in his life. It stood pawing the ground and grunting as it eyed him. Whatever the next bull was like, it had to be better choice than this one. He ran to the fence and let the bull pass through the pasture, out the back gate.

The door opened a third time. A smile came across his face. This was the weakest, scrawniest little bull he had ever seen. This one was his bull. As the bull came running by, he positioned himself just right and jumped at the just the exact moment. He grabbed, but the bull had no tail!

Life is full of opportunities. Some will be easy to take advantage of, some will be difficult. But once we let them pass (often in hopes of something better), those opportunities may never again be available.

The same thing is also true of opportunities to serve Christ. God often opens doors- opportunities to speak up for Him, opportunities to minister to someone who is hurting or in need, opportunities to have an influence on the world around us. If we allow them to pass by, we may miss out on them altogether.

"Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith" (Galatians 6:10).

On Saturday, January 28, our goal is to get the youth room upstairs in a working condition again. We first started talking about these renovations a year ago, and we want to get things rocking and rolling. If you would like to help us get it all finished up, from touching up the paint, to doing the flooring, and putting some of our furniture back in the room, please come through at 10:00 a.m. If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know!

It may seem early, but we are already setting our sights on Camp Hensel 2023! This year Easter weekend falls on April 7-9. With the rising cost of everything in our world, we've bumped the price for students up to $70; this covers the five meals we will be having and the overnight occupancy charges at the campgrounds. If you have any questions, please feel free to give me a shout! We're looking forward to seeing how God will transform lives at this year's Camp Hensel Retreat!
