FAMILY NEWS

Sunday we were encouraged in our assembly. It was great to have visitors to worship with us. Let's all make plans to be here on the Lord's day.

Let's continue to pray for the renovation of our building. Our next special contribution will be on June 24. You as a church have been giving very liberally. We are appreciative of your love for our church family.

The elder's have decided we should be back in our auditorium on June 24. We have a few things to get done with the audio and video. These are important in helping with the communication in our services.

Our contribution was about one hundred dollars short of our weekly need on June 10. We need to remember our budget is for fifty two weeks. So it is important for us to give each Sunday to help us meet our responsibilities. If you are out of town please make up your contribution when you return. Some folks will leave their contribution before leaving out of town. Either one of these practices are great. Let's all share with God in a liberal manner. God will bless the giver.

Our Summer Series started on June 6 with Justin Gonzales from the Pearland congregation. We enjoyed having Justin with us. We look forward in having Luke Guthrie on June 13 from Wharton. Your family and you need to be present each Wednesday evening. There will be a teenage and Bible Time class during our Wednesday evening service.

Let's be mindful of our sick. These Christian's need our prayers and support during their health challenges. Let's reach out to them.

We have a group at Camp Bandina this week. They left on June 9 and 10 and will return on June 16. Let's pray for these people while they are away and for their safe return.

Leland

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE

"My sweet church family, Fifty-three years ago, my family moved to Angleton and since that time, you have surrounded my family and me with love. Your reception recognizing my forty-one years with Angleton ISD is one more example of your love for us. It has been my joy to work with the children of this community. Thank you for always supporting our children—whether it was by preparing meals for a needy family or bookbags for so many kiddos or by praying for all of us in education. Your love of God has always shone through your generosity. Bill and I love you and we covet your prayers as we begin this next chapter in our lives. With much love,"
