IMPACT! Day

On Sunday, October 22, is our Impact Day. We will have a meal in our fellowship hall following our morning services. We need a head count. Please let us know on the back of your attendance card, if you plan to attend. We are also asking for volunteers to help with the desserts. There is a sign up sheet in the foyer, if you can help.

IMPACT FOOD DRIVE

Will you help us reach our goal of 8,500 cans of meat for Impact by Sunday, October 22?

From the Preacher’s Desk - Updates

Fall feels like one of the busiest times of the year for us all, but especially for the congregation. As most know we are in the midst of our annual IMPACT Canned Food Drive! This is an event that this congregation has been helping with for many years, and without disappointment, this congregation answers the call. As of writing this article, we have 12 days until our “Impact Day!” What that means is that we need to push as hard as we can to collect those last few cases and cans. So please consider bringing cans with you this Wednesday Evening or Sunday Morning, and if you need help buying the Vienna sausages don’t hesitate to ask, we have people ready and waiting to get the job done.

Last Wednesday evening we had our first YAM Bible Class. For those who are confused by what YAM even means, allow me to share with you some exciting news. We’ve started our new Young Adult Ministry group here at the Angleton Church of Christ! While we are excited about all that will come with this new group, hangouts, dinners, devos, and chances to help the community; our priority was putting together the Young Adult Bible Class. Wednesday evenings, after dinner, cards, singing, and devo we are meeting in the new YAM classroom. It’s the first classroom on the right down the classroom section of the building. I am especially excited about what was chosen for our study, The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis. For those who are not familiar with the book, it begs the question: if evil wrote a “how-to” book about turning people away from God, what would that look like? I was encouraged by the discussion that we had in our introduction class, but even more so by the number of young adults that we had with us. The whole room was filled, and I pray that that is the case every week moving forward. If you are a young adult, we hope that you will come and be a part of this new and exciting group.

Update! Our Trunk-or-Treat is just around the corner and we are excited to announce that we have some pretty exciting additions this year thanks to some donations from members of the congregation. Not only will we have our regular decorated vehicles passing out candy, but some vehicles will also have games for kids to play. We will also be providing hot dogs, popcorn, candy, and other yummy treats! What I don’t want us to forget through it all is why we are doing this event. Our Trunk-or-Treat has always been an evangelistic tool for our congregation. Part of the reason we ended the drive-thru feature was because it didn’t give us a chance to chat with members of our congregation. We hope this year will give us a chance to get to know members of our congregation and show them God through our actions. If you have not signed up to help, or donated candy, please come talk with me. We need a minimum of 20 vehicles, although this year I’d like to have closer to 25 if we can.

Lastly, as some of you know by now, our family got the unfortunate news that our landlord has decided to sell their home and we are being forced to move. It was extremely difficult, but we have found a new rental house. Unfortunately, we have to be moved from our current house and into our new one in about two weeks. Because I know how busy this time of year is, we are not asking for any help, but rather understanding. Because of the short notice, I will be working quite a lot at home or out of the office, trying to get things settled. If for some reason you need me and can’t find me at the building, please don’t hesitate to call. I will happily drop whatever I am doing and help if needed. On behalf of my family, thank you for understanding as we get through this speed bump! God bless and have a great week!

SYMPATHY

We express our love and sympathy to the Griffith family in the loss of Darrin’s aunt, Gwen Smith, who passed away Saturday, October 7.

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE

“Thank you so much for the prayers and the outpouring of love shown by so many. I am so grateful for each and every card and prayer I have received. I am abundantly blessed even on difficult days. I cannot accurately put into words how grateful I am to have you all praying for me and my sweet little family during this time. I have been shown God’s goodness through these acts of kindness and thoughtfulness. He is the ultimate healer! With a thankful heart,”

Rachel, Dillon and boys

The next Sister to Sister is scheduled for Tuesday, October 24, at noon.

EXPESSION OF GRATITUDE

“To the Church at Angleton, Thank you all for the sweet cards. I cannot drive or go to work yet. I spent a few days in the hospital in League City due to dizziness and heart palpitations. My cardiologist has me on a heart monitor for 3 weeks. The cardiologist at the hospital ran a multitude of tests. Results show that the plumbing is flowing fine. So now we wait to see what the electricity is doing—therefore the heart monitor for 3 weeks. I still have some dizziness and palpitations, so your prayers are greatly appreciated. So many of them have already been answered. In Christian love,”
