From the Preacher's Desk

"The Thrill of Flying"

You've probably heard this story, as it is not original to me and probably has been used by many preachers. A farmer was driving down the road one day and noticed a sign by the local airport that said, "EXPERIENCE THE THRILL OF FLYING." The farmer thought to himself, tomorrow is my wife's birthday. I'd love for her to experience the thrill of flying. That sure would make a nice birthday present.

The farmer went to the airport and after some time found a pilot who would take him and his wife on a flight over their farm. The pilot owned a small open-cockpit plane that would certainly give his wife a thrill, but the pilot's price was too high. The farmer bartered with the pilot for a long time, insisting on a lower price. Finally, the pilot agreed to the lower price, on one condition: the farmer and his wife had to promise not to say a single word during the entire flight. One word spoke aloud, however small, would increase the price to the pilot's original fee. The farmer's determination to give his wife the thrill of flying was only surpassed by his determination to spend as little money as possible, so he agreed to the condition.

The next morning the three of them took off and soon were high in the air. The pilot knew that if he did a few roller-coaster dips and turns with the plane, the couple in the backseat would soon speak up, and he would receive a higher price. With that in mind, the pilot dipped and turned, climbed and dived, even did a few loop-de-loops. But not a sound was uttered. Not a scream, not a whimper, nothing but silence. As they were landing, the pilot, amazed at the determination of his passengers, yelled back to the farmer, "I can't believe you didn't say something up there! Why, I dipped and turned, climbed and dived as never before, but you two were quiet the whole time. I guess you win!" The old farmer shouted back, "Well, you almost won, son. You almost won. I sure felt like hollering when my wife fell out."

That story might put a smile on your face, maybe even make you chuckle a bit; however, the sad truth is how close the farmer's attitude compares to many who live worldly lives. The old farmer was determined to get what he wanted on his terms. When I look at the society that we now live in, I see people who are amazingly determined to have things their way and will do whatever it takes to obtain it. When we worship the god of self, we allow for our arrogance to get in the way of living righteously. Maybe you're like the old farmer. You read through the Bible, and you know what God truly wants from you, but you want something different. Your life ends up like a game of tug-of-war between the Word and the world. Matthew 6:24 reminds us, "No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other." You need to decide what you want more, to be devoted to God or to be devoted to mankind. There are a lot of people, every day, who choose the god of self over the God of the Bible, and are doing very well for themselves. This fact has often caused many faithful Christian's to abandon their spirituality for the riches of this realm. What they forget is that the time spent on this earth is but a vapor (James 4:14), and the many great treasures, the fame, and the fortune will be left behind (Matthew 6:20). How sad the day will be for those who sacrificed their eternal salvation for a few years of worldly living. Mark 8:36, "For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his soul?" God Bless!

EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE

"Dear Church family, Thank you all for the calls, cards, visits, good, and various ways of taking care of us. Most importantly, we want to thank you for the prayers. It's a wonderful feeling knowing so many people are approaching God on our behalf. We love and appreciate you all and hope to return soon as a family of four. With love,"

The Olmos family

"My surgery went well. Thank you so much for all the cards and prayers. I felt the love!"
